I the undersigned petitioner beg to submit the following few lines:—

As ordered by the Subordinate Judge at Kolar, at my own proposal and by the acceptance of my proposal by the above Court, my father-in-law Mr. M.Krishna Rao, Land-holder and Retired Assistant Inspector of Education, furnished a security bond binding himself responsible for the amount specified in the Succession Certificate granted to me by the above Court, in the interests of my minor children.

As the amount of Rs.1000/- being the amount of bonus due to my husband the late Mr. M.K.Balaji Rao from the Calcutta National Insurance Company for the recovery of which amount I have now sought for a Succession Certificate from your Honourable Court is included in the Succession Certificate granted to me by the Subordinate Judge at Kolar and hence as I submit that it does not seem to be necessary now to furnish another security bond for this amount of Rs.1000/- from the Calcutta National Insurance Company I beg to request that your Honourable Court will kindly exempt me from furnishing a security for the amount of Rs.1000/- again a second time.
